SUMMARY 25X1D 25X1D

Osipovich Ammunition Depot Yasen North-west (Figure 1) is located on the north side of the Minsk-Bobruysk Highway, 10 kilometers (km) east of Osipovich (53-18N 028-39E). A secondary road provides access to the Minsk-Bobruysk Highway.

This installation (Figures 2 and 3), comprised of a double fenced ammunition storage area and an adjacent support area, covers approximately 440 acres. The secured ammunition storage area contains 11 ammunition storage buildings, three possible explosives storage buildings, a foundation for an additional possible explosives storage building, and eight support buildings. The support area contains one administration building, eight barracks, four storage buildings, one vehicle shed, 29 support buildings, and a small arms firing range.

The area is covered by [REDACTED] TALENT photography and 10 KEYHOLE missions between [REDACTED]. Comparative analysis reveals an increase of track activity from light activity during [REDACTED] to medium to heavy activity during [REDACTED].

Significant changes observed include the addition of two ammunition storage buildings, three possible explosive storage buildings, two barracks, and three support buildings and construction of additional internal roads between [REDACTED].

DESCRIPTION OF INSTALLATION

Rail Service

There is a single track spur from the Osipovich-Oktyabr rail line to this area, but it is probably abandoned.

Road Service

A secondary all-weather road provides access to the Minsk-Bobruysk primary highway.

Administrative and Troop Housing Areas

Area D1 (Figure 3) has one administration building, six barracks, and six support buildings. Trackage indicates probable occupancy. No change is noted in the level of track activity.

Area D2 has two barracks, three storage buildings, and 12 support buildings.

Two barracks and three support buildings were constructed between [REDACTED] [REDACTED]

General Storage Area

Area E has one storage building and one support building. These buildings were first observed on [REDACTED] coverage. They are possibly occupied.

Ammunition Storage Areas

Area F1 has three 230- by 45-foot possible explosive storage buildings, first observed on [REDACTED] coverage, and a foundation for a possible storage building (indicated by dashed line on Figure 3), first observed on [REDACTED] coverage.

Area F2 has eight support buildings and two 200- by 45-foot, one 150- by 55-foot, six 130- by 45-foot, and two 120- by 50-foot ammunition storage buildings surrounded by a double fence. Two of the storage buildings were first observed on [REDACTED] coverage. Trackage, indi-
